

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

What is arthroscopy?

Traditional arthroscopy is the fiber-optic viewing and sometimes simultaneous repairing of joints, usually knees. Surgeons continue to improve the procedure to reduce pain and healing times.

Right knee, shown from the inner side of the leg...

